Between:

..... PETITIONER

AND

The Depot manager, APSRTC., Korutla Depot, Karimnagar District

.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a Writ, order or direction, more in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declaring the office order dated 26.6.1998 passed by the respondent herein as illegal and arbitrary and contrary to APSRTC CC & A Regulations and set a side the same with all consequential benefits including arrears.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.P.GOVINDA RAJULU

Counsel for the Respondent: SMT.P.RAJANI REDDY

The Court at the admission stage made the following O R D E R:

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned standing counsel appearing for the respondents.

The petitioner questions the order dated 26.06.1998 imposing punishment of postponement of annual increments for a period of two years, which shall have the effect of postponing the future increments.

The petitioner contends that imposing the punishment of postponement of increments with cumulative effect is a major penalty and the same cannot be imposed without conducting any enquiry.

This Court in S.K.Mastan v. Managing Director, APSRTC, held that imposition of punishment of postponement of increments with cumulative effect is a major penalty and the same cannot be imposed unless preceded by an enquiry.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and following the above judgment, I am inclined to modify the punishment imposed on the petitioner to that of postponement of annual increments for a period of two years without cumulative effect.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of modifying the punishment imposed on the petitioner to that of postponement of annual increments for a period of two years, which shall not have the effect of postponing the future increments. By virtue of this order, petitioner is not entitled for any monetary benefits from the date of punishment till this date. However, he is entitled for increments on notional calculation. No costs.
